

BUSINESSES SANCTIONED

Continental Alarm Systems, Inc., Gary W. Melvin, Compliance Agent, Bluff City, TN. For performing electronic security duties without a registration, a financial sanction of $250.

Eye On Info, Brian Myerly, Compliance Agent, Midlothian. For subcontracting (1099) to an unlicensed entity, a financial sanction of $100.

Integration Engineering and Service Corp., Edward S. Layo, Compliance Agent, Rockville, MD. For engaging in regulated activities prior to obtaining a private security services business license, a financial sanction of $500.

K-9 Security Company, Ed Rooney, President, Oxon Hill, MD. For obtaining a listing in the Northern Virginia Yellow Pages prior to being licensed in Virginia, cease and desist all regulated activity in Virginia.

Entertainment Technologies (ENTEC), Joseph A. Mari, Compliance Agent, Richmond. For entering into a contract for electronic security services without the private security services business license number being on the contract, a financial sanction of *$250.

Fairfax Protection, Ltd., Ronald N. Miller, Culpeper. For failing to include the private security services business license number in a Yellow Pages ad, a financial sanction of *$1,000. (The business license had expired when the ad was purchased.)

Regional Law Enforcement Services, Inc., while company was operating without a compliance agent, Hampton. For permitting an armed security officer to continue working after the expiration of his registration, a financial sanction of $250.

Sandcastle Corporation, P. K. Spencer, Manassas. For conducting electronic security business without a private security services business license, cease and desist all regulated activities and a financial sanction of *$2,500.

Security Contractors, Brenda L. Chappell, Compliance Agent, Owings Mill, MD. For permitting an electronic security technician to work without a registration, a financial sanction of $250.

Security Forces, Inc., Robert C. Watson, Compliance agent, Charlotte, NC. For employing unarmed security officers beyond 90-days without training, and failing to initiate a VSP-167 Criminal History Record Search prior to employment, financial sanctions totaling $400.

Security Services of America, Inc., Robert J. Cappello, Compliance Agent, Morehead City, NC. For failing to submit the VSP-167 Criminal History Record Search for unarmed security officers on the first day of employment, a financial sanction of $900.

Shamus, Inc., Richard T. Froemming, Compliance Agent, Falls Church. For failing to provide documentation as to terms agreed to between the client and the business, remit a financial sanction of *$500.

The Wackenhut Corporation, Allen J. Brown, Compliance Agent, Virginia Beach. For allowing an armed security officer to continue working after the expiration of his registration, a financial sanction of $250.

Wilson's Security Services, Thomas L. Wilson, Compliance Agent, Stephens City. For continuing to provide regulated services after the private security services business license and insurance expired; failing to maintain training records on employees; selling/installing an electronic security system without appropriate registrations; and continuing as compliance agent after certification expiration, a financial sanction of *$2,500 and revocation of certification as a compliance agent.

INDIVIDUALS SANCTIONED

Ms. Mary L. Bower, Armed/unarmed Security Officer, Richmond. For continuing to work after the expiration of registration/certification, a financial sanction of *$100.

Mr. Clinton A. Edwards, General Instructor, Roanoke. For negligently handling a firearm resulting in an injury, revocation of instructor certification. (This incident occurred during a break in the firearms training.)

Mr. Rocky L. Sluss, Roanoke. (Mr. Sluss was working in his first ninety-days as an unarmed security officer.) For having emergency warning lights on a private security vehicle that were other than amber (red and green), Mr. Sluss shall be ineligible for licensure, registration or certification in any regulated category for a period of five years.

Mr. Scott C. Stewart, Private Investigator, Midlothian. For providing private security services without a business license (working as a 1099 contractor): a financial sanction of $100, probation on his registration, ineligible for licensure for a period of five years and cease and desist contracting private investigations.